

To register for the workshop please email fiona.hawkins@eema.org or tel: 01386 793028 or online: <http://www.eema.org>

An eema UK Regional Interest Group Workshop

Hosted by Symantec
Green Park, Reading, UK
Tuesday 16th May 2006
10.00 – 16.00

eema members: free
Non-members: 300 euro

Agenda

Cyber Crime in a Corporate World

The key topic will focus on Cyber Crime related to e-Business on Internet and within Corporate Intranets. Both electronic and social engineered Cyber crime is within the scope. Other types of Cyber Crime will be addressed including illegal access to data, data modification, Denial of service attack, Fraud, stolen storage systems and computers, malicious code imported via web browsing, browsing of non suitable sites from corporate networks, connecting non business computers to corporate networks.

The topics will include threats, vulnerabilities, detection, mitigation, protection, monitoring, intruder protection, gaining evidence for prosecution, international cross boarder issues, best practice for prosecution etc.

09.30 – 10.00 Doors open & coffee

10.00 – 10.10 Welcome by Chairman and host from Symantec

Agenda and scope of the day's programme

Martin Linda, Siemens Business Services GB and Ireland, (Chairman of the UK RI group)

10.10 – 10.20 Round Table Introductions All

Your chance to learn of delegates association, work areas and specific interest in the meeting.

10.20 – 10.35 Snap shot of eema

Martin Linda

(if this is the first eema event for a significant number of delegates)

10.35 – 11.20 Current Threats and solutions

Fredrik Sjostedt, Symantec

11.20 – 11.35 Coffee / Tea

11.35 – 12.20 Botnets within a corporate network

Lesley Green BT

12.20 – 13.05 Revealing Hidden identities of Cybertribes

Johannes Arreymbi & Godfried Williams, University of East London

This issue is still very disturbing to all in the business of tracing and tracking.

13.05 – 14.00 Lunch and informal 'networking'

14.00 – 14.45 Investigating Cyber Crime through the use of Forensics

Richard Leary, Forensic Pathways Ltd

14.45 – 15.30 Securing the Remote link to Corporate and public data services

Mike Davies, Verisign

15.30 – 15.45 Wrap up: - Future meetings

Martin Linda

15.45 – 16.00 Coffee / Tea